The United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH) was established on 1 June 2004 by Security Council Resolution 1542.

Why we came?

MINUSTAH was established in 2004 in response to a deteriorating political and security situation in Haiti. The Mission was mandated to ensure a secure and stable environment within which the constitutional and political process in Haiti could take place.

A devastating earthquake hit Haiti on 12 January 2010 resulting in 220,000 deaths, including 102 peacekeepers. MINUSTAH's strength increased to 12,600 military and police to support Haiti's recovery and reconstruction.

Kidnappings DECREASED BY OVER 95% in 10 years. Rates of homicides are also the lowest since 2013.

MINUSTAH has helped restore Haitian National Police control of many neighborhoods around Port-au-Prince once controlled by gangs.
